

JobSpin.cz Multilingual Job Fair Powered by Brno Daily

Date: October 14, 2017 Place: Faculty of Social Studies of Masaryk University, Joštova 10
Press release: July 28, 2017 in Brno, Czech Republic

JobSpin.cz organizes the second international job fair for multilingual job-seekers this October in Brno. Being in the top 5 best cities for students in the world, Brno has got a diverse, young, and cosmopolitan community.

Katerina Kukrechtova, JobSpin.cz job fairs event manager says: "The job fairs have become very popular among multilingual professionals in Prague and Brno. Over 400 candidates and 15 international companies and organizations came to the first Brno job fair this February."

Companies such as AT&T, Zebra Technologies, or Honeywell will be looking for prospective employees at the fair. Manpower Group will provide a special CV Consulting Panel all day long to help improve the candidates their CVs and advise them on job interview preparation. Visitors can also look forward to 5 presentations about relocation and working in the Czech Republic.

The new media partner of the fair – Brno Daily – will ensure the coverage of the event to reach the diverse international community of Brno (brnodaily.cz).

The official language of the job fair is English; candidates do not need to speak Czech. The companies at the fair seek the speakers of English, French, German, Dutch, Nordic languages, Russian etc.

The next JobSpin.cz Multilingual Job Fair Powered by Brno Daily takes place October 14, 2017, from 10 am to 4:30 pm at Masaryk University at Joštova 10. The entry is free of charge for candidates.

"We will schedule the dates for job fairs in 2018 in the upcoming weeks. We would like to organise 4 job fairs next year, two in Prague and two in Brno, exactly as in 2017," informs Kukrechtova.
